Section 2. Joint Membership.

A husband and wife may apply for a joint membership and, subject to their compliance with the requirements set forth in Section 1 of this Article, may be accepted for such membership. The term “member” as used in these bylaws shall be deemed to include a husband and wife holding a joint membership and any provisions relating to the rights and liabilities of membership shall apply equally with respect to the holders of a joint membership. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the effect of the hereinafter specified actions by or in respect to the holders of a joint membership shall be as follows:

- a. The vote of either separately or both jointly shall constitute one joint vote;
- b. A waiver of notice signed by either or both shall constitute a joint waiver;
- c. Notice to either shall constitute notice to both;
- d. Expulsion of either shall terminate the joint membership;
- e. Either but not both may be elected or appointed as an officer or trustee, provided that both meet the qualifications for such office.

Section 3. Effect of Death, Legal Separation or Divorce upon Joint Membership.

Upon the death of either spouse of a joint membership, such membership shall continue to be held solely by the survivor, in the same manner and to the same effect as though such membership had never been joint: PROVIDED, that the estate of the deceased spouse shall not be released from any debts due the Cooperative. Upon the legal separation or divorce of the holders of a joint membership, such membership shall continue to be held solely by the one who continues directly to occupy or use the premises covered by such membership, in the same manner and to the same effect as though such membership had never been joint: PROVIDED, that the other spouse shall not be released from any debts due the Cooperative.

Section 4. Membership Service and Fees.

The membership fee may be five dollars. A service fee shall be charged for each additional meter location.

Section 5. Purchase of Electric Power and Energy and Other Services.

Each member shall, as soon as electric power and energy shall be available, purchase from the Cooperative all electric power and energy used on all premises specified in his application for membership, unless otherwise authorized in writing by the Cooperative, and shall pay therefore at rates which shall from time to time be fixed by the Board of Trustees. Production or use of electric energy on such premises, regardless of the source thereof, by means of facilities which shall be interconnected with the Cooperative facilities, shall be subject to appropriate regulations as shall be fixed from time to time by the Board of Trustees. It is expressly understood that amounts paid for electric power and energy in excess of the cost of service are furnished by members as capital and each member shall be credited with the capital so furnished as provided in these Bylaws. Each member shall pay to the Cooperative such minimum amount regardless of the amount of electric power and energy consumed, as shall be fixed by the Board of Trustees from time to time. Each member shall also pay all amounts owed by him to the Cooperative as and when the same shall become due and payable. The Cooperative or its subsidiary may market other services to both members and non-members alike.

Section 6. Termination of Membership.

Any member may withdraw from membership upon compliance with such uniform terms and conditions as the board of trustees may prescribe. The Board of Trustees of the Cooperative may, by the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of all the trustees, expel any member who shall have refused or failed to comply with any of the provisions of the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or rules or regulations adopted by the board of trustees, but only if such member shall have been given written notice by the secretary of the Cooperative that such refusal or failure makes him liable to expulsion and such refusal or failure shall have continued for at least ten days after such notice was given. Any expelled member may be reinstated by vote of the board of trustees or by vote of members at any annual or special meeting.

Upon the withdrawal, death, cessation of existence, or expulsion of a member, the membership of such member shall thereupon terminate, and the membership certificate, if any, of such member shall be surrendered forthwith to the Cooperative. Termination of membership in any manner shall not release a member or his estate, nor does it in any way forfeit, diminish, or affect the patronage capital account of the terminated member from any debts due the Cooperative.

ARTICLE II - RIGHTS AND LIABILITIES OF MEMBERS

Section 1. Property Interest of Members.

Members shall have no individual or separate interest in the property or assets of the Cooperative except that upon dissolution the property and assets of the Cooperative remaining after all debts and liabilities of the Cooperative are paid shall be distributed among the members in the proportion which the aggregate patronage of each members bears to the total patronage of all members during the seven years next preceding the date of the filing of the certificate of dissolution, or, if the Cooperative shall not have been in existence for such period, during the period of its existence.

Section 2. Non-liability for Debts of the Cooperative.

The private property of the members shall be exempt from execution or other liability for the debts of the Cooperative and no member shall be individually liable or responsible for any debts or liabilities of the Cooperative.

As part of the consideration for such service, each member shall be the Cooperative's bailee of such facilities and shall accordingly desist from interfering with, impairing the operation of, or causing damage to such facilities, and shall use his best efforts to prevent others from so doing. In the event such facilities are interfered with, impaired in their operation, or damaged by the member, or by any other person when the member's reasonable care and surveillance could have prevented such, the member shall indemnify the Cooperative and any other person against death, injury, loss, or damage resulting therefrom, including but not limited to the Cooperative's cost of repairing, replacing, or relocating any such facilities and its loss, if any, of revenues resulting from the failure or defective functioning of its metering equipment. In no event shall the responsibility of the Cooperative extend beyond the point at which its service wires are attached to the meter loop provided for measuring electricity used on such premises, or beyond the combination circuit breaker meter base panel if such is owned and maintained by the Cooperative, except that the Cooperative shall, in accordance with its applicable service rules and regulations, indemnify the member for any overcharges for service that may result from a malfunctioning of its metering equipment.

ARTICLE III - MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

Section 1. Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the members shall be held at the Cooperative headquarters, or as otherwise designated by the Board of Trustees and designated in the notice of the meeting, for the purpose of electing directors, passing upon reports for the previous fiscal year, and transacting such other business as may come before the members at the meeting. Failure to hold the annual meeting at the designated time shall not work a forfeiture or dissolution of the Cooperative.

Section 2. Special Meetings.

Special meetings of the members may be called by resolution of the board of trustees, or upon a written request signed by any three trustees, by the chairman, or by ten percent or more of all the members, and it shall thereupon be the duty of the secretary to cause notice of such meeting to be given as hereinafter provided. Special meetings of the members may be held at any place within the counties of Anderson, Greenville, Oconee, and Pickens, State of South Carolina, specified in the notice of the special meeting.

Section 3. Notice of Members' Meeting.

If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail, addressed to the member at his address as it appears on the records of the Cooperative, with postage thereon prepaid. The failure of any member to receive notice of an annual or special meeting of the members shall not invalidate any action which may be taken by the members at any such meeting.

Section 4. Quorum.

The minimum required by South Carolina law, shall constitute a quorum. If less than a quorum is present at any meeting, a majority of those present in person may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice. When a quorum is once present to organize a meeting, the members who remain present may continue to do business at the meeting, or at any adjournment thereof, notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough members to leave less than a quorum.

Section 5. Voting.

Each member shall be entitled to only one vote regardless of the number of service connections. All questions shall be decided by a vote of a majority of the members voting thereon in person, except as otherwise provided by law, the articles of incorporation, of these bylaws. No proxy voting shall be permitted, nor shall any member be allowed to vote by mail.

Section 6. Voting Districts.

- District No. 3 – The northern part of Greenville County and the northwestern part of Spartanburg County which shall be represented by one trustee.
- District No. 4 – The northern and western portions of Anderson County, which shall be represented by one trustee.

Not less than sixty days before any meeting of the members at which trustees are to be elected, the Board of Trustees shall review the composition of the districts, and, if it shall be found that inequalities in representation have developed which can be corrected by a re-delineation of districts, the Board of Trustees shall reconstitute the districts so that the respective trustee shall represent as nearly as possible the same number of members.

Section 7. Nomination and Election of Trustees.

a. Nomination at District Meetings.

Not less than thirty days nor more than sixty days before any meeting at which trustees are to be elected, the Board of Trustees shall call a separate meeting of the members of each district at a suitable place in such district for the purpose of nominating as a candidate one person for each trusteeship allocated to a given district to represent the members located within said district. The notice of such meeting shall be delivered to each member located in such district as provided in Section 3 of this article and shall indicate the district to which such member belongs. The notice shall state that nominations for trustees are to be made at the meeting. The meeting shall, however, be open for the discussion of any other matters pertaining to the business of the Cooperative, regardless of whether or not such matters were listed in the notice of the meeting, and recommendations with respect thereto may be submitted to the board of trustees or the entire membership.

The district meeting shall be called to order by the trustee representing the district or by another designated representative of the Board of Trustees, or, in his absence, by any member residing within the district. The presiding officer, shall then proceed to appoint a chairman, who shall be someone other than a trustee, and who shall then appoint a secretary to act for the duration of the meeting. Fifteen members residing in the district present at such duly called district meeting shall constitute a quorum; however, the chairman may declare a quorum. Members of other districts present at the meeting may be heard but shall have no vote. Nominations for candidates for trustee shall be made from the floor at the meeting, and any member residing in the district shall have the right to nominate one candidate. The meeting shall remain open for nominations until no further nominations are forthcoming. Candidates must be members residing in the district and must possess the qualifications for trustee specified in Section 2 of Article IV of these bylaws.

Voting shall be by ballot. Each member may vote for one candidate. The three candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared the official candidates of the district. The minutes of such district meeting shall set forth, among other matters, the name of each person nominated at the meeting and the number of votes received by each, and shall specify the two official candidates of the district. A copy of the minutes shall be kept on file at the Cooperative office.

b. Election of Trustees.

Not less than ten days before an annual or special meeting of the members at which trustees are to be elected, Secretary of the Cooperative shall mail to each member a list of the candidates selected at all district meetings, the names to be arranged by districts and in the order of preference indicated by the respective district vote. This list may be included with the notice of the meeting. At the meeting, the names of the official candidates of each district shall be placed in nomination. Election of trustees shall be by ballot unless there is only one (1) candidate nominated at the district meeting, in which case, said nominee may be elected as trustee by acclamation of the members present at the annual meeting. The ballots shall list the candidates selected at the district meetings, the names to be arranged by district and in the order of preference indicated by the respective district vote.

Each member of the Cooperative present at the meeting shall be entitled to vote for one candidate from each district. The candidate from each district receiving the highest number of votes at this meeting shall be considered elected as trustee.

- f. to provide a fund for education in cooperation and for the dissemination of information concerning the effective use of electric energy and other services made available by the Cooperative, shall, unless otherwise determined by a vote of the members, be credited to or be distributed among its patrons in proportion to their patronage during the fiscal year in which such revenue and receipts were received, in accordance with the following principles and regulations.

Section 1. Interest or Dividends on Capital Prohibited.

The Cooperative shall at all times be operated on a cooperative, nonprofit basis for the mutual benefit of its patrons. No interest or dividends shall be paid or payable by the Cooperative on any capital furnished by its patrons.

Section 2. Patronage Capital in Connection with Furnishing Electric Energy.

In the furnishing of electric energy, the Cooperative's operations shall be so conducted that all patrons, members and nonmembers alike, will, through their patronage, furnish capital for the Cooperative. In order to induce patronage and to assure that the Cooperative will operate on a nonprofit basis, the Cooperative is obliged to account on a patronage basis to all its patrons, members and nonmembers alike, for all amounts received and receivable from the furnishings of electric energy in excess of the amounts required for items, (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), and (f), in this article properly chargeable against the furnishing of electric energy. All such amounts in excess of the amounts required for said items at the amount of receipt by the Cooperative are received with the understanding that they are furnished by the patrons, members and nonmembers alike, as capital. The Cooperative is obligated to pay by credits to a capital account for each patron all such amounts in excess of the amounts required for said items. The books and records of the Cooperative shall be set up in such a manner that at the end of each fiscal year, the amount of capital, if any, so furnished by each patron is clearly reflected and credited in an appropriate record to the capital account of each patron. The Cooperative shall within a reasonable time after the close of the fiscal year, upon request being made, advise such patron of the amount of capital so credited to his account. All such amounts credited to the capital account of each patron shall have the same status as though they had been paid to the patron in cash in pursuance of a legal obligation to do so and the patron had then furnished the Cooperative corresponding amounts for capital.

If at any time the Board of Trustees shall determine that the financial condition of the Cooperative will not be impaired thereby, the capital then credited to patrons' account may be retired in full or in part. The Board of Trustees shall determine the method, basis, priority, and order of retirement, if any, for all amounts furnished as capital. In no event, however, may any such capital be retired unless, after the proposed retirement, the capital of the Cooperative shall equal at least twenty five percent of the total assets of the Cooperative. In the event of dissolution or liquidation of the Cooperative, after all outstanding indebtedness of the Cooperative shall have been paid, outstanding capital credits shall be retired without priority on a pro-rata basis before any payments are made on account of property rights of members.

Capital credited to the account of each patron shall be assignable only on the books of the Cooperative pursuant to written instruction from the assignor and only to successors in interest or successors in occupancy in all or a part of such patron's premises served by the Cooperative unless the Board of Trustees acting under policies of general application, shall determine otherwise.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these bylaws, the Board of Trustees, at its discretion, shall have the power at any time, upon the death of any patron, if the legal representative of his estate shall request in writing that the capital credited to any such patron be retired prior to the time such capital would otherwise be retired under the provisions of these bylaws, to retire capital credited to any such patron immediately upon such terms and conditions as the Board of Trustees, acting under policies of general application, and the legal representatives of such patron's estate shall agree upon; provided, however, that the financial condition of the Cooperative will not be impaired thereby.

The patrons of the Cooperative, by dealing with the Cooperative, acknowledge that the terms and provisions of the articles of incorporation and bylaws shall constitute and be a contract between the Cooperative and each patron, and both the Cooperative and the patrons are bound by such contract, as fully as though each patron had individually signed a separate instrument containing such terms and provisions. The provisions of this article of the bylaws shall be called to the attention of each patron of the Cooperative by its posting a copy of same in a conspicuous place in its office.

Section 3.

Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit the payment by the Cooperative of all or part of its indebtedness prior to the date when the same shall become due.

Section 4. Unclaimed Patronage Capital.

When a payment of patronage capital is declared and is unclaimed after more than six (6) years, and the owner or his legal representative cannot be located, the Cooperative will then submit the unclaimed patronage capital to the State of South Carolina and will administer notice of the unclaimed property in a manner prescribed by the South Carolina Code of Laws. The Cooperative may impose a regular and reasonable service charge during each year in which an owner fails to claim such property held by the Cooperative.

ARTICLE VIII - DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY

The Cooperative may not sell, mortgage, lease or otherwise dispose of or encumber all or any substantial portion of its property unless such sale, mortgage, lease, or other disposition or encumbrance is authorized at a meeting of the members thereof by the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds (2/3) of all of the members of the Cooperative, and unless the notice of such proposed sale, mortgage, lease or other disposition or encumbrance shall have been contained in the notice of the meeting; provided, however, that notwithstanding anything herein contained, the Board of Trustees of the Cooperative, without authorization by the members thereof, shall have full power and authority to authorize the execution and delivery of mortgage or mortgages, or a security interest agreement or agreements, or a deed or deeds of trust upon, or the pledging or encumbering of, any or all of the property, assets, rights, privileges, licenses, franchises, and permits of the Cooperative, whether acquired or to be acquired, and wherever situated, as well as the revenues and income therefrom, all upon such terms and conditions as the Board of Trustees shall determine, to secure any indebtedness of the Cooperative to United States of America or any instrumentality or agency thereof or to National Rural Utilities Cooperative Finance Corporation or other sources.

Section 2. Checks, Drafts, etc.

Except as otherwise provided by law or in these bylaws, all checks, drafts, or other orders for the payment of money, and all notes, bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the Cooperative shall be signed by such officer, officers, agent, agents, employee, or employees of the Cooperative and in such manner as shall from time to time be determined by resolution of the Board of Trustees.

Section 4. Fiscal Year.

The fiscal year of the Cooperative shall begin on the first day of September of each year and end on the thirty-first day of August of the following year.

ARTICLE XI - MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Membership in Other Organizations.

The Cooperative shall not become a member of any other organization without an affirmative vote of the members at a meeting called as provided in these bylaws, and the notice of said meeting shall specify that action be taken upon such proposed membership as an item of business; provided, however, that the directors shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Cooperative to purchase stock in, or to become a member of, any corporation or cooperative organized on a non-profit basis for the purpose of engaging in rural electrification.

Section 2. Waiver of Notice.

Any member or trustee may waive in writing any notice of a meeting required to be given by these bylaws. The attendance of a member or trustee at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting by such member or trustee, except in case a member or trustee shall attend a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting shall not have been lawfully called or convened.

Section 3. Rules and Regulations.

The Board of Trustees shall have power to make and adopt such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, as it may deem advisable for the management, administration and regulation of the business and affairs of the Cooperative.
